

As the coronavirus pandemic unfolds in the UK, our main priority is ensuring the safety of everyone who comes to our food bank – whether it's someone needing help, someone volunteering their time, or someone making a donation.

Things are changing quickly, so we'll keep this page updated regularly with information about what's happening at Chelmsford Foodbank and how people can access support and help us be there for people in crisis.

We're still supporting people with emergency food at Chelmsford Foodbank and will do for as long as is possible. In the meantime, we need you, our local community, to continue donating vital food supplies. While we haven't run out of all donation, there are certain items we're running low on. Your support is vital at this time, so if you're considering donating, we're particularly in need of:

- UHT Milk
- Instant mash
- Tinned potatoes
- UHT fruit juice
- Tinned rice pudding

You can donate food or make a financial donation by clicking here <https://chelmsford.foodbank.org.uk/give-help/>.

You can find out more about the Trussell Trust network's response to coronavirus here www.trusselltrust.org/coronavirus-food-banks and you can follow us on Twitter @ChelmsfordFoodbank or on Facebook /ChelmsfordFoodbank to stay up to date.